

AVALON

at Carolina Forest

Memo To: All Homeowners
From: Avalon Board of Directors
Re: Avalon Website
Date: August 9, 2007

The Avalon website has moved! The new address is avalonatcarolinaforest.com (just like the header on this memo). The old website was unreliable and had way too many pop-ups. We registered the new web address so the HOA now actually owns it. What that means is that we no longer have to depend on second party websites.

The board would like to give a HUGE thank you to Avalon homeowner Christine Potter who has maintained the Avalon website for seven years now free of charge! Christine does a fantastic job.

Please add the new Avalon website to your favorites and check it frequently for updates. There is a lot of useful information on the site!
